

WIM Networking Event

Have you ever wondered about the women that make up the membership of WIM? What they do? How long they've done it? What they did before? In response to feedback we've received from our membership, we decided to try something a little different for our December meeting and host a afternoon tea dedicated to encouraging our members to get to know each other.

Here are a few things to keep in mind when attending networking events (Angie Segal, "Make the Most of the Holiday Season" <http://www.beltwaynetworking.com/?q=node/2136>):

- Spend a few minutes talking with the people you want to know better; don't just greet them and move on.
- Have a plan for following up with the people you want to know better.
- Last, but not least...have a good time! Fun is important and it shows in your attitude.

So bring your business cards and be prepared to make some new friends! And remember, "People LOVE to talk about themselves." (Scott Bradley, "Networking Effectively" <http://www.networkingeffectively.com/?p=3>)
