

WOMEN in MANAGEMENT

Empowering the Women of USC since 1979

Interview skills with Nicola Franklin

Come explore Interview Skills with Nicola Franklin, Operations Director, Talent Acquisition, at tronc Inc. Interviews can be intimidating, but with good preparation and practice you can master the skills you need to shine. This presentation will cover the various types of interviews you may encounter and offer you tools and techniques to prepare great answers and overcome interview nerves. This interactive session will ensure you make the most of your opportunity to make a strong first face-to-face impression.

Women in Management (WIM) was formed in 1979 in response to the need for an organization for women in leadership positions at USC, and to address the issues of increased representation of women in responsible positions, equal pay for men and women holding similar positions, and the provision of a forum in which women could develop leadership skills. The purpose of the organization remains to provide a forum for communication, professional development, and career opportunities for women at USC.
