For a discussion on

Emerging Management/Leadership Skills Needed for the Future

As Assistant Vice President in the Career Services Division at the University of Southern California, Dr. Mary Campbell oversees the university's talent management functions: Recruitment Services and the office of Professional and Organizational Development. Dr. Campbell holds a B.A. and M.A. in Psychology, as well as an M.S. and a Ph.D. in Organizational Psychology. She teaches in the Master's Degree Program for Executive Leadership at USC's School of Policy, Planning and Development. Prior to joining USC in 2000, Dr. Campbell, served in a faculty role for ten years within the California State University system, teaching undergraduate and graduate psychology courses. In addition, she currently serves as Chairman of the Board for the California Diversity Council. She is a regular presenter at national and local industry-related conferences and association events. Dr. Campbell will speak to developing "management skills to meet the demands of a complex future". Bring your notebook or iPad to take notes!
